

Existing Noise Levels

- Existing noise levels were measured at representative locations along the Corridor in September 2009
- Noise levels generally range from approximately 50 to 70 dBA
- The loudest levels were measured within 50 feet of the edge of Austin Bluffs Parkway
- The lower levels were measured further from the road, or at locations where there was not direct line of sight to the road (e.g. a building in the way)

